

Board Members Take Part in Construction Start Celebration of the Wallace Weir Fish Rescue Facility Project in Yolo Bypass – October 6, 2016

Central Valley Flood Protection Board President Edgar, Vice President Suarez, Secretary Dolan and Boardmember Macdonald, along with multi-benefit partners from the US Bureau of Reclamation, Reclamation District 108, California Department of Fish and Wildlife, California Department of Water Resources, Metropolitan Water District, local and State elected officials, California Trout and others joined the California Natural Resources Agency in this memorable celebration. More pictures below.

